

Project Sheet Caravan

Location Great Portland Street

Timing 12 weeks

Ecsec won the tender to fit out Caravan's latest restaurant, their 5th, in Great Portland Street. The 4500 sq. ft restaurant has taken over the ground floor and basement of Yalding House, which was previously BBC Radio 1's recording studio.

The ground floor consists of 3 dining rooms, bar and a to-go counter where you can grab & go if in a rush. The basement consists of the kitchen, toilets and a private dining and party space.

The project took 12 weeks to complete and included bespoke wall finishes, crittal doors and screens, ornate brickwork and stone clad counters.
